CHAD BUNGARD

CHIEF STRATEGY OFFICER

OIG – SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION (SSA)

B. Chad Bungard is currently the Chief Strategy Officer for the Office of Inspector General (OIG), SSA. In that role, he provides executive-level advice, guidance, and support to the Inspector General on key mission-critical issues, initiatives, and functions. He is responsible for building strategic capabilities and relationships and developing new, major policy directions, innovative programs and initiatives. He is also responsible for directing the OIG's legislative and congressional affairs program and directing the communications and media responsibilities for the OIG. Mr. Bungard also serves as Co-Chair of the SSA National Anti-Fraud Committee. He has been a member of the Senior Executive Service in the Executive Branch since 2006.

Prior to his current role, from 2018-2020, Mr. Bungard served as the Deputy Commissioner for Analytics, Review, and Oversight at the Social Security Administration. The Office of Analytics, Review, and Oversight (OARO) supports the agency's mission, goals, and service principles by reviewing program quality and effectiveness; making recommendations for program improvement using feedback from the adjudication of cases, predictive modeling, and advanced data analysis; coordinating the agency's detection and prevention of fraud; and responding to recommendations of external monitoring authorities. He also served as the Chief Legal Officer for three Executive Branch agencies, where he served as the General Counsel of the U.S. Merit Systems Protection Board from 2006-2010, Counsel to the Inspector General to the SSA OIG from 2010-2015, and General Counsel for the Special Inspector General for the Troubled Asset Relief Program (SIGTARP) from 2015-2018, where he was the chief legal officer and legal representative for SIGTARP.

In addition to attaining his B.S (cum laude) and J.D., Mr. Bungard received an LL. M. in Law and Economics from George Mason University School of Law. He has been published in numerous legal and peer review journals, including those at UCLA, Seton Hall, the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, and the Journal of Public Inquiry, among others; he was also recognized as a practitioner contributor in the 9th Ed. of Black's Law Dictionary. Mr. Bungard is licensed to practice law in VA. Mr. Bungard received leadership certificates from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) and the Federal Executive Institute.
