- For a selected non-Federal Government candidate, salary will be established within the salary range listed above, based on education and experience.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Inspector General of the Intelligence Community (ICIG) was established within the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) by the Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2010. The ICIG has the authority to initiate and conduct independent audits, inspections, investigations, and reviews of programs and activities within the responsibility and authority of the Director of National Intelligence (DNI). The ICIG's principal organizational divisions are Audit, Investigations, Inspections and Evaluations, and Management and Administration. The ICIG also operates a Center for Protected Disclosures.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Initiate, plan, and conduct comprehensive, multi-disciplinary evaluations and reviews of systemic issues within the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI), national mission centers, and the Intelligence Community (IC) to evaluate efficiency and effectiveness, identify vulnerabilities, and prevent and detect fraud, waste, and abuse.
- Plan, develop, and conduct ODNI and IC-wide strategic analysis for the purpose of promoting the economy, efficiency, and effectiveness of programs and operations; plan and develop process improvement plans and procedures, identify areas for improvement, assess whether oversight and compliance are effective, and monitor trends in oversight activities across the IC.
- Design and conduct interviews, define data collection requirements, collect and analyze data and records, and synthesize this information to develop findings, conclusions, and recommendations; develop reports, present findings, and follow-up on recommendations.

- Provide advice, counsel, and support to other inspectors and inspection teams by searching for, gathering, screening, and providing factual information and explanations related to the inspection, or to the compliance-related program itself.
- Develop and present recommendations to ODNI and IC senior leaders regarding actions they should take to address issues identified in inspections to promote the economy, efficiency, and effectiveness of programs and operations.
- Plan, develop, and present written documents, including reports of inspection, memoranda to management, and other documents, and also develop and present oral briefings for senior leaders regarding findings and the status of complex inspections.
- Develop and present reports for congressional oversight committees and the President's Intelligence Advisory Board's Intelligence Oversight Board (IOB) on intelligence oversight issues.
- Evaluate and assess IC, ODNI, component, center, and program compliance with Federal law, Executive Orders, Presidential Directives, and internal regulations and policies.
- Monitor and assess the progress of corrective measures taken by senior ODNI and IC leadership, and provide substantive advice and innovative solutions to senior officials regarding implementation of recommendations.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Extensive knowledge of and/or experience supporting and furthering the mission and responsibilities of the ODNI, Intelligence Community, and OIG.
- Demonstrated ability to lead an inspection team, develop inspection plans, conduct highly complex inspection projects, and write reports to substantiate findings.
- Demonstrated ability to exercise sound judgment and form objective conclusions/recommendations based on empirical facts, evidence, and other pertinent information.
- Demonstrated analytical and critical thinking skills, including the ability to think strategically, identify needs and requirements, and develop recommendations based on qualitative and quantitative data.
- Demonstrated ability to examine information, identify problems, uncover root causes, develop findings and leads, and make cogent, actionable recommendations.
- Demonstrated interpersonal and negotiation skills, including ability to interview, negotiate, brief senior officials, and work effectively, independently, and in a team or collaborative environment.
- Demonstrated oral and written communication skills and a demonstrated ability to produce clear and logical reports.

Desired Requirements

- Highly Desired: Program Management and/or Intelligence Oversight experience is preferred.
- OIG experience preferred (Inspections, Evaluations, Audit and/or Investigations)
- A four-year degree from an accredited institution;
