

EXIM OIG invites you to apply to the following reimbursable detail as the OIG's counsel; this 120-day detail is a great opportunity for an attorney at the GS-14/15 (or equivalent) level who is interested in expanding their practice to broad areas of the law impacting the Inspector General community and complex financial transactions. The detailee will be serving in my role while I am on leave, and will report directly to the Inspector General. The work is incredibly interesting and is only outshone by the amazing people with whom you'll get to work. We invite all interested individuals to apply and are planning to onboard the detailee starting Monday, June 27, 2022.

Reimbursable Detail Opportunity with the Office of the Inspector General for the Export-Import Bank of the United States

The Office of the Inspector General (OIG) for the Export-Import Bank of the United States (EXIM) is looking for a highly motivated attorney (GS-14/15) to serve on a reimbursable 120-day detail. The selectee will serve as an Attorney-Advisor in the Immediate Office and will report directly to the Inspector General.

EXIM serves as the official and only export credit agency of the United States, supporting American jobs and exporters by facilitating the financing of U.S. goods and services in international markets. EXIM has recently expanded its programs and operations to include the China and Transformational Exports program and a domestic financing initiative called Make More in America. EXIM OIG conducts audits, investigations, inspections and evaluations that provide independent oversight of more than $5.8 billion in annual authorized transactions in support of nearly $10 billion in export sales and 39,000 American jobs.

EXIM OIG is a dynamic, fast-paced and exciting place to work. As a small OIG, our collaborative staff work closely together to ensure the integrity, transparency, and efficiency of EXIM programs and operations. As counsel, the detailee may expand and refine their skills through a variety of assignments, including but not limited to: assisting with semi-annual reports to Congress; reviewing criminal investigations; supporting ongoing audits; providing legal advice regarding issues relevant to OIG operations; analyzing and preparing recommendations for OIG responses to requests under the Freedom of Information Act; and advising management regarding personnel matters.

The selectee will advise on some or all of the following OIG practice areas, depending on the immediate needs of the office:

- Audits;
- Investigations;
- FOIA;
- Redaction reviews;
- Legislation and regulations;
- Whistleblower protection;
- Personnel matters;
- Privacy Act; and/or
- Ethics.

The candidate should have strong research, oral and written advocacy skills and a record of successfully building relationships with customers, peers, and colleagues. Experience handling FOIA, investigations and/or redaction issues is preferred.

If you are interested in applying for this detail, after obtaining the approval of your supervisor and General Counsel (or his/her designee), please submit an introductory email or cover letter with your resume to Jennifer.Fain@exim.gov no later than close of business on Monday, June 20, 2022. Please direct your submission and inquiries to Jennifer Fain, Deputy Inspector General, Jennifer.Fain@exim.gov, and/or Jonathan Walz, Senior Advisor to the Inspector General, Jonathan.Walz@exim.gov.

Please also feel free to reach out to me (Amanda.Myers@exim.gov) directly if you have any questions about the work or the position.
