

Non-Reimbursable Detail Opportunity with the Office of General Counsel
U.S. Department of State, Office of Inspector General

The Office of the General Counsel (OGC) is looking for a highly motivated Attorney (GS-13, GS-14 or GS15) (who currently holds a top-secret security clearance) to serve on a 120-day detail, which may be extended if all parties are in agreement. This is a non-reimbursable detail. The incumbent of this detail will serve as an Attorney Adviser (GS-14). If eligible, a temporary promotion will be offered for the first 120-days only.

We are a dynamic, fast paced, collaborative and supportive group of lawyers. This position is perfect for a government lawyer interested in working in a foreign policy and international context. The incumbent will report directly to the Deputy General Counsel.

This Attorney Adviser should have a minimum of three years of prior OIG experience and will serve as a generalist advising on some or all of the following OIG practice areas:

- audits
- inspections
- investigations
- ethics
- procurement
- fiscal
- whistleblower complaints
- information management
- employment,
- law enforcement

Such work may include but is not limited to providing legal sufficiency reviews and legal opinions or memoranda on issues of law relevant to general OIG operations or to particular OIG audits, inspections, or investigations; handling litigation; reviewing contracts; conducting ethics reviews and analyzing and preparing recommendations for OIG responses to requests under the Freedom of Information Act.

This candidate must be an excellent writer and communicator with a record of successfully building relationships with customers, peers, and colleagues.

If you are interested in applying for this detail, please seek the approval of your supervisor and AIG in advance of applying and submit an introductory email and/or cover letter and resume to the attention of Da’Vaughnta Daughtry-Crenshaw at HR-OPS@stateoig.gov no later than August 31, 2021. If you have any questions, please direct them to Mr. Daughtry-Crenshaw at 571-348-0118.
