

PRESENTS

The Inspectors General Leadership Forum

July 8, 2014, 1:00 - 3:00pm (followed by a networking reception)
Homeland Security Training Institute Auditorium, 90 K St NE, Washington, DC 20002*

This event is FREE. Register at: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/LeadForum1>
Forum will be available via live web broadcast. Participants receive 2.0 CPEs for attendance.

Just as the world has changed and evolved over time, so has leadership in the federal government. Discussions by panel members offer insight and vision on today's IG leadership:

- ▴ The changes to OIG organizations and their cultures in today's world*
- ▴ The key leadership qualities for success in the IG community*
- ▴ The unique challenges facing OIG leaders*
- ▴ How to prepare yourself for positions of greater responsibility*

Scheduled Panel Members:

Phyllis Fong
Inspector General
USDA

David C. Williams
Inspector General
USPS

David A. Montoya
Inspector General
HUD

Mary Kendall
Acting IG
DOI

Special Invited Guests:

Stephen B. Wiley
Lincoln Leadership

Patrick Malone
American University

Russell Barbee
DHS OIG

Jacquelyn Phillips
USPS OIG

Moderated by:

*The DHS Training Institute is located within walking distance of Union Station and accessible via Metro Red Line at Union Station, Gallaudet U (New York Ave), MARC and VRE, various commuter buses and Inter-City buses. Street and garage parking is available near 90 K Street, NE; however, use of public transportation is recommended.