

Tom Bobrowski

Program Analyst

DHS OIG

Tom Bobrowski is a Program Analyst in the DHS-OIG Office of Audits. He is based out of the Boston, MA field office and has been with the OIG for 8 years. He recently completed the audit Federal Protective Service's Management of Its Vehicle Fleet Operations (OIG-16-02, October 2015). The audit identified $2.5 million in potential savings for FPS in FY 2014. Although the audit focused on FPS' 1,150 vehicle fleet, its findings affected the fleet management strategy for DHS' entire vehicle fleet of approximately 52,000 vehicles. Tom is a Certified Inspector General Auditor by the Association of Inspectors General. He received a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.