

Gary T. Engel

Director

Financial Management and Assurance Team

Government Accountability Office

Gary Engel is a Director in the Financial Management and Assurance Team of the United States Government Accountability Office (GAO). He is responsible for directing GAO's annual audit of the consolidated financial statements of the U.S. government as well as key financial statements audit work at the Department of the Treasury, including GAO's audit of over $18 trillion of federal debt and the annual audit of the Troubled Asset Relief Program's financial statements. Further, Mr. Engel is primarily responsible for the GAO Financial Management and Assurance team's work in the debt collection, credit reform, and debt management areas. Engagements that he has led have contributed to significant financial and non-financial benefits for the federal government related to financial management. Mr. Engel is a recipient of numerous GAO individual and team work awards including multiple Distinguished Service Awards.

Prior to joining GAO in February of 1991, Mr. Engel was a Senior Audit Manager with a major public accounting firm in its Washington, D.C. office. During his 12 years in public accounting, Mr. Engel planned, monitored and directed numerous financial statement audits and provided accounting and financial management advice for a variety of clients consisting primarily of large and mid-size organizations.

Mr. Engel is a Certified Public Accountant, and Certified Government Financial Manager. He is also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Association of Government Accountants. Mr. Engel is a graduate of Virginia Tech.