

Beth A. Hoffman León

*Director
Audit, Inspection, and Evaluation Academy
CIGIE Training Institute*

Ms. León joined the Council of the Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency (CIGIE) Training Institute in June 2011 as the Director of the Audit, Inspection, and Evaluation Academy. She manages the development, implementation, and administration of training for both the audit and inspection/evaluation communities within CIGIE.

She began her government career in 1988 with the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO) reviewing a wide range of programs at the Departments of Defense and State. Later, while working in GAO's International Affairs and Trade team, she managed the execution of numerous audits that addressed drug trafficking, arms control, nonproliferation, Cooperative Threat Reduction, and Chemical Weapons Convention issues.

From 2006 to 2008 she was detailed to GAO's Learning Center where she managed a variety of training courses and implemented a training curriculum for all new hires in GAO headquarters. She permanently joined the Learning Center in 2009 and served as the Director of Adjunct Faculty and Strategic Learning Programs. She worked with the Chief Learning Officer and Learning Center colleagues to coordinate, design, and deliver learning programs for all GAO staff. She also recruited, trained, and coordinated the activities of some 300 GAO Adjunct Faculty members involved in the design and delivery of Learning Center curricula.

For her service to GAO, she received a number of awards including Customer Service, Meritorious Service, and Managing Director's awards.

Ms. León received her Master's Degree in Public and International Affairs, and Bachelors' Degrees in Political Science and History from the University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. She resides with her husband and son in Virginia.
