

Terrence (Terry) J. Letko

Terry Letko is a Senior Acquisitions Advisor in the Department of Transportation (DOT) OIG's Office of the Assistant Inspector General for Acquisition and Procurement Audits. He provides guidance to various DOT-OIG managers and staff on scoping and conducting audits of DOT programs and contract management and also serves as a program director responsible for managing procurement and contract audit teams. Terry previously directed financial management audits at DOT entities and audits of the Highway Trust Fund financial statements. Terry is also the Co-Chair of the Contracting Committee of the Federal Audit Executive Council. Prior to joining the DOT-OIG in 2000, Terry spent 20 years as a contract auditor at either the DOD-OIG, where he was a project manager in the Office of Audit Policy and Oversight, or the Defense Contract Audit Agency (DCAA) where he performed various duties, including supervisory auditor, at the Fairfax Branch Office. Terry started his Federal auditing career with DCAA in 1979 in Minnesota. He graduated from Bloomsburg State College (PA) and is a CPA licensed in Virginia. Terry and his wife Corazon and son, Daniel, reside in Southern Maryland.
