

Greg Spencer
Director of Financial Statement Audits
U.S. Department of Education, Office of Inspector General

Greg Spencer is Director of Financial Statement Audits with the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Inspector General (ED-OIG), with 40 years' experience in financial statement auditing and corporate accounting. Mr. Spencer currently leads the ED-OIG's oversight of the contracted financial statement audits of ED included in the financial report of the United States, and of Federal Student Aid, a component of ED responsible for the student loan programs.

Mr. Spencer is a Certified Public Accountant, a member of the AICPA, and for 7 years was Chair of CIGIE's Subcommittee on Financial Statement Audits and its associated Financial Statement Audit Network (FSAN). Over the years Mr. Spencer led or participated on various FSAN workgroups with OIG colleagues, GAO, the Treasury, and OMB, updating a wide range of financial statement audit related guidance.

Mr. Spencer has a Bachelor of Science (BS) in Accounting from Baylor University. Prior to joining the ED-OIG, Mr. Spencer worked for 9 years in the private sector as an auditor for an accounting firm and in leadership positions in corporate accounting.