

John P. Pearson

John P. Pearson is an Assistant United States Attorney with the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Texas. As a member of the Major Fraud Section, he investigates and prosecutes allegations of corporate and financial fraud, including bank fraud, investment schemes, corporate embezzlement, and insider trading. AUSA Pearson also handles special projects when assigned by the United States Attorney.

Before coming to the U.S. Attorney's Office, AUSA Pearson served as a Senior Counsel to the Assistant Attorney General for the Criminal Division, Department of Justice. In this position, he advised the Assistant Attorney General and senior Criminal Division leaders on a range of issues, and was responsible for leading management and law enforcement initiatives both in and outside of the Division. AUSA Pearson also served as a Trial Attorney in the Public Integrity Section of the Criminal Division, where he led a wide range of public corruption and official misconduct investigations and prosecutions.