

Yulanda Reynolds
Data Analytics Program Manager/Chief Inspector
Naval Sea Systems Command OIG

Ms. Yulanda Reynolds is currently serving as Data Analytics Program Manager and Chief Inspector for the Naval Sea Systems Command (NAVSEA) Office of the Inspector General (IG). Ms. Reynolds has served with the NAVSEA IG Office since January 2013. Prior to her current role as Inspector and Program Manager, she served as Deputy Assistant Inspector General for Command Evaluations and Program Manager for the Knowledge Management and Enterprise Risk Management programs.

Prior to joining NAVSEA, Ms. Reynolds served two years as GAO Liaison for the Department of Treasury's Troubled Asset Relief Program, and twelve years as a Department of the Army Civilian, working various assignments in Virginia and Germany as Accountant and Director of Internal Review and Audit Compliance.

Ms. Reynolds holds an MBA and a Master of Science in Management from the University of Maryland University College.

Ms. Reynolds' civilian awards include the Department of the Army Achievement Medal for Civilian Service, Department of the Army Commanders Awards for Civilian Service, and Department of the Army Commendations.