

Stuart A. Robinson

Stuart A. Robinson has been an FBI Special Agent for over 23 years, and has specialized in the investigation of Public Corruption, Civil Rights, and White Collar Crime violations. He worked extensively in Boston following the 9/11 terrorist attacks. He was a supervisor in the FBI Headquarters Public Corruption program, and supervised the White Collar Crime and Public Corruption programs for the southern third of Connecticut. In Connecticut he was also the statewide Undercover Operations Coordinator and White Collar Crime Coordinator. For the last six years, he has been working in South Florida where he has been the case agent on more than five Public Corruption undercover operations.

