

Ross Simms, FASAB

Ross Simms is an assistant director for the Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board (FASAB). Since joining FASAB in May 2005, Mr. Simms' projects have focused on the federal reporting model, long-term investments, codification of accounting and financial reporting standards contained in the AICPA Statement on Auditing Standards, the hierarchy of generally accepted accounting principles, and conceptual guidance for distinguishing basic information, required supplementary information, and other accompanying information. Prior to joining FASAB, Mr. Simms served in various capacities at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Office of Inspector General, including Director of Financial Management Audits. Mr. Simms is a Certified Public Accountant, Certified Internal Auditor, and Chartered Global Management Accountant. His education includes a Bachelor of Science in accounting from Jackson State University, a Master's in Business Administration from Mississippi State University, and a certificate in information technology from the University of Virginia. Mr. Simms is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and Association of Government Accountants (AGA) Washington DC Chapter, and is a past president of the AGA Washington DC Chapter.