

Anthony V. Teelucksingh

Senior Counsel

US Department of Justice

Computer Crimes and Intellectual Property Section

At the United States Department of Justice, Anthony V. Teelucksingh has been part of a team responsible for the prosecution of network intrusions, computer attacks, and other violations of U.S. computer crime laws for more than 10 years. For the last 6 years, he has also been assigned to the U.S. Attorney's Office in Baltimore, Maryland to prosecute computer crime and intellectual property crime case. He is a frequent speaker, both domestically and internationally, on the issues of computer network security, criminal enforcement, and international cooperation. As part of the Department's training and outreach programs, he has traveled to numerous countries and regional bodies around the world to advise legislators, judges, prosecutors, and police on cybercrime and criminal investigations. He has also served as a member of numerous U. S. delegations to various international programs and conferences where cybercrime is a topic.