

Dave Williams
Special Agent
US Department of the Interior
Office of Inspector General

Dave Williams has over 25 years of experience as a Special Agent, primarily with the Office of Inspector General (OIG) for the U.S. Department of the Interior (DOI) in both Washington, DC, and Albuquerque, New Mexico, where he spent 5 years as the Resident Agent in Charge. For the last 3 ½ years Dave has served as the lead DOI OIG agent assigned to the U.S. Department of Justice task force investigating the 2010 BP oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico. In addition to serving as an adjunct instructor for the IG CIA, Dave is also a firearms instructor and the deputy chief of the DOI OIG surveillance team. Dave is a graduate of Penn State University and FLETC's Law Enforcement Adjunct Instructor Training Program.
